

PET STORE INSPECTION	A pet store licensed as a dealer must meet all applicable regulations and standards.
Criteria	All regulated animals in the pet store must be inspected and meet the applicable standards and regulations EXCEPT as listed below.
Exemptions	The following are exemptions from compliance with the regulations and standards specifically for pet stores: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• official USDA identification is not required for dogs and cats• record of disposition is required only for the animals that were the basis for licensing, such as wild/exotic pocket pets, raccoons, primates, etc. NOTE: Record of acquisition is required for all regulated animals.